To the Eckerd College Community,

Here it is, the '88 Logos! We hope you have as much fun flipping through the pages as we had producing it.

We would like to apologize for any seniors, dorms, clubs, organizations, or sports that we may have overlooked. Though the man power and money was lacking, we did the best we could .

We had a great time working on this year's yearbook. We are looking forward to next year's. We now have one year's experience behind us. Have a great summer!

Thanks,
'88 Yearbook Staff

Last Will and

Roses
One dark rose in a wild garden grew
With none but red, and red, and red;
And because its clothes were a darker
hue,
Found no connection in that bed;
So knowing of directions only two,
Let fall the petals from its head:
A rose is a rose when a rose is dead.

I, Max R. Bricka, being of waterlogged mind and windblown hair leave: Rescue 2's engines to Murray, the problems at the W.F. to Jen, my timing light to Brad, an everlasting ski trip to Watch B, and a tremendous college tab to my parents. But most of all, I leave my love for Stacey for all to see, envy, and enjoy, forever.

Max R. Bricka

You can't always get what you want,
You can't always get what you want,
You can't always get what you want,
But if you try sometimes,
You just might find,
You just might find,
You get what you need.

To Cling-Free, I leave sole control of Clint. . . . . Don't forget the "traditional" CB's, and Cling, you haven't seen the last of me! !

To the rest of Blakley House, I leave you Howie.

Steve Frew

I, Charlotte Kondracki, being of sound mind and "boogieing" body here to bequeath the following:

To the Surf and Paully, I leave my backrubs.

To the girls of Knox (and Lisa), I leave my favorite pastimes: dancing and sunning.

To Larry, I leave my Miami music:
I'll miss my dancing buddy, Champ!

And to my friends, I thank you for the best memories of my life, best of luck always.

Charlotte Kondracki

To Dr. Reynolds, I leave my invertebrate collecton, complete with scar patterns, as well as immeasurable thanks for all the help, knowledge, and guidance you've given unselfishly.

To Dr. Ferguson, I leave gratefulness for all I've learned.

To Drs. Roess, Trexler, and Haines, don't worry, I won't leave biology.

To Dr. Jennings, I leave ALOHA!

To Doc Rock, I leave BUGS!

To Bill Covert and Lynn Russell, I leave best wishes.

To Nadine, I leave shells with holes and the "Bellows" (here's to the future).

To Waleed, Chris, Andy, Bob, and Rich, I leave years of cardiovascular health. . . .

To Jeannie, I leave dresses and high heels.

To Jim K., Karen M., Ted B., Howard R., and Mary D., I leave every ounce of fortune the future can hold for you.

To Kim B., Dr. Johnston, Megum, and Irie-san: Arigate gozaimashita.

To Eckerd College, I leave unwillingly!

Shana Smith

Testament

To my brother Mark, I leave my ability to show up to class six times and still get a "B" without classnotes.

To Mark and Dave, I leave all the entering freshmen girls of '88 and '89.

To rising Junior and Senior males, I leave Jen, Michelle, Sandy, and Tracy: Are they as innocent as they lead you to believe?!?

To Jen and Michelle, I leave my room, Ibsen 24.

And most importantly, I leave my car to Mark! Good Luck!

Laura Ringley

Now what?! Let's get the hell outta here! Andrea, Melissa (and James): I love you all! !

A child stands motionless,
He holds a bottle in his hands,
There's a ship in the bottle,
He stares at it with eyes that do not blink,
He wonders where a tiny ship can sail
to if it is held prisoner in a bottle,
Fifty years from now you will find out,
Captain Martin, for the sea (large as it is) is only another bottle.

Being of sound mind and body, I, Jeanie Connell bequeath my estate to the following recipients:

To Tammy Vredwoogd (my loving roommate), I leave my hamster "Retard", my replenishing envelopes, and all the food in my refridgerator.

To Tom West, I leave all of my books. (they're all from your class!)

To Katy Townsend, I leave my pictures of "Mister Wonderful".

To Fred Savage (my love), I leave a case of Copenhagen, whatever food Tammy doesn't eat, and my little Escort, and all the fishing tackle I own.

Jeanie Connell

To Skip Bradley, I leave my Elvis posters, Jason postcard, and Death handkerchief.

To Chase Smith, I leave enough car wax for him to wax his car every Saturday morning.

To Rob Rodgers, I leave a clue.

To Rich McNair, I leave my radio and shirts that he already has.

Russ Newman

My Eyes are blind, but I can see,
The snowflakes glisten on the trees,
The sun no longer sets me free,
I feel the snowflakes freezing me. . .

Dreams that have shattered,
May not have muttered,
Take another point of view.

Eric "Buzz" Yaskot

I, Doris Bazzini, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following:

To Brian, I leave a chicken sandwhich with cheese and heavy mayo, all of the Disney movies, Face Without A Name, the keys to my Datsun which he drives more than me anyway, a year's supply of shampoo, future summers without $80 phone bills, a gaseous cerebrum, 2- hour love sessions 4 times a day, a lifetime of being babied, all my love and memories of the past 3 years. Fletch lines ("He ain't doing no singin' with the Tabernacle Choir"), Stellazzini, dock, Springsteen, Cowboy, the shore, CCC, state b-ball, BK runs, naked pizza parties, "Like Multiple", "Did you go to the Springsteen concert?", The T.I.T., guitar lessons, and "Rutgers".

To Clare, I leave a third of the royalties from the "Psych Lab" song when it hits the charts, a "rollodex" full of memories, congestion-free days, a yellow-bellied sap sucker, a 16-minute breath, The Snyder Self-Monitoring Scale, a hand to smell, a squeaky door that wakes you up at 6:00 am, Fletch dialogue ("Got the whole fist in there Doc?"), all the memories of being senior roommies, a new exercise ball for Little Girl, a data-less year ahead, She-Man reruns, all of my love and the best of luck in the future as Mrs. Clare Kirchman.

To Susie, I leave a guide to get you through the French Metro while you sleep, a hoarse voice to sound like the "Boss", a bottle of Tylenol for putting up with me for 3 years, a boat to sail back to the Don Cesar, the book that I'd like to write together on "How To Get Your Man Back", and a big hug for all we've been through together.

To Maria (Ree), I leave a special calling card number that dials anywhere in the world in less than a minute for all your international loves, my partridge family records (any you don't already have), a farm house with no electricity, "What is this a convention center?", my little brother, and all my love and thanks - Italian sisters forever.

To Tracey, I leave all my "Cars" tapes, a weekend getaway ticket to Mexico, a golf cart that can't be moved without a key, all the men at Cowboy, and a special thanks for my first tampon.

To Dawn, I leave a jaccuzzi so that we won't have to go from hotel to hotel, sunbathing on Jeff's ledge freshman year, a hug for all the great advice you've given me, and lots of love and luck in the future.

To Michelle, I leave a grass skirt for our 10 year reunion, 6 dozen Halloween pumpkins, the real story about Heartbreak Ridge, and the best of luck in the future.

To Carla, I leave all our freshman bus rides together for 9:30 mass at Blessed Trinity.

To Todd, I leave a set of earplugs to wear whenever I have man problems, a debate-less year ahead, and a "girder" to support your future.

To Susan, I leave all our 70's golden oldies - "Halfbreed", "Gypsies Tramps and Thieves", "Seasons in the Sun", "Billy Don't Be A Hero", a Stevie Nicks album collection, "Stand Back, Stand Back", The Best of Suzanne Vega, take the skinheads bowling, a heartfelt thanks for letting me listen to your song - The Well is fantastic. I'll miss you so much next year.

To Margaret, I leave the other third of the royalties for the "Psych Lab" song, a tank top to wear to the PL, a big bulge of happiness in the future, an eyebrow - pubic (private) hair detector, the ability to deal with a panic situation, you can't tell mom in degrees, a new telephone because I've worn yours out, the ability to dodge falling boards in a BRA, and all my love always - maybe we'll end up at Rutgers together, or at least in New Jersey.

To Jeff, I leave a suitcase so he can be packed and out of here in two hours.

To Professor Jeff Howard, I leave twelve handwritten test booklets, a subscription to Self-Monitors of America Magazine, and all my love and thanks to you for helping me to understand the "Amino Acids" of Psychology.

To Professor Mark Davis, I leave a lifetime supply of Media Graphs (the beauty of research), shares in the Nestle's chocolate manufacturing company, 1500 more lollipops, and most of all thanks for all your help and support. Your classes taught me so much, and I don't think I 'll ever forget what I've learned in them. It's great to be able to laugh and learn at the same time.

To Kim Kirby, I leave flexible grip control, fun and memories of freshman year, a free ticket to sneak into the pool, a catapult, a new "Emotions" tape, and all my love to the greatest friend ever.

To my family, I leave all my love and thanks for making me what I am. I love you all ! !

Doris Bazzini

Thanks to my parents for making everything possible. All my love. To Mike, thanks for being the best hubby in the world, my love forever; and Karen remember all the good times.

Catalina Watson

To the EC inmates, I, Mary Dermody, leave long nights in the lab, all-nighters writing a paper or putting together a "well-kept" journal, swamping in Marine Invertebrates, lost meal cards, seminar, roaches in the bathroom, spiders in the bathroom, no toilet paper in the bathroom, obscene notes on message boards, finals, midterms, and any other tests, flu epidemics, the Munch Mobile, Sunday lunches in Saga, buying $150 worth of books each semester, dorm furniture, making new friends, parties, singing B-52's on the john, the London Victory Club, shopping at Albertson's in your pajamas, cruising dorm drive for no reason, real mail in your boxes and having fun in a semi-retarded kinda way! ! !
P.S. I would leave the memories, but I'm taking them with me! !

Mary Dermody

I, Margaret Racaniello, leave to these looney-tunes the following:

To Greg, I leave "Mind if I watch the A-Team?!", Ronald Reagan at Sid Vicious, Lamp Man, a Peanuts coloring book, "some people may think it's immoral...", Lurch, Wide World of Spurts subscription, homemade matzoh ball soup, 130 mph minimum, canned Campbell's wonton soup for an emergency, all the time we spent agonizing over RA interviews, a speedometer that stops at 85 mph, sexual hour and revolutionary hour, dirty dishes at the Keys, "We'll be O.K. as long as we don't go near the bed", puppet strings, CUN-HA!, danks and head butts, Scott's sheets, aerodynamic, anal lips, farting on command, bathing Blotto in the Scott House tub, a lifesize Rambo doll for you and Blotto, "We're going to study Spanish", Figueroa's torture methods, the Munchmobile record, a fight with 2 homosexuals if you don't play the Village People, the masturbatory and sodomistic representative of our club, rights to the word "dude", " Little Guitars", "growing up" together, a special bond, all that we gained from being best friends, my everlasting love for always being there, understanding and knowing me so well, accepting and loving me unconditionally, the Good Love...

To Clare, I leave a microphone for singing "You Light of My Life", "I'm gonna f--- you up the butt!", 3 hours of sleep during Autumn Term, the Pub every Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night, "my, how, you've grown", a virgin to sacrifice at the S+M club, "Now there's my favorite R.A.", a how-to book for cleaning your refrigerator, Morticia, cod Todd, MacDougall's vocabulary, rights to the word "refreshing", grilled cheese and french fries, the human tampon, the trap, 2 tales of 2 cities (it's still stupid), gravy for your macaroni, "that's a good idea," B.B. + R.C., "you don't have to hold the handle", a tape recording of all your jokes so you can laugh yourself silly, "he's really intelligent", meditating in Morris House, Oprah Hour, Kahlua, "get out of town", page 218, Macaroni and cheese, our predictions for the future, From Cow Back to Human, Blimpo No Snacko!, No Fat Chicks!, "You have a beautiful crotch", Todd 7, Kitty and Kenny Kirchman, being the first one to "tie the knot", a lifetime friend, all the happiness in the world...

To Ellen, I leave "Congradulations on your engagement", the Kiwi fruit from August to May, an "I Hate Boys Club" bumper sticker for the Shupenmobile, the Big C, the honor of being the member of our club who's been kicked out the most, lesbian dreams and pranks, "Next time we will all get kinky together", a ride to the BK drive-thru twice in 10 minutes, "I transferred", a regular spoon for eating an omelette or stromboli, "Does he live in our dorm?", Rock (I'm not small everywhere!), Thing, "That 103 degree fever is all from nerves", the paper we used to figure our chances of making RA, "Breasties", Grouper Shuper, maxi-pads that read "I want you!" one week, a Margarita-Elena party, ten different versions of "Let's go to bed", a plane ticket to Germany and a razor for when you return, a walk to the seawall with a hetrosexual male with great teeth, enough laughter and faith for a lifetime.

To Kristen, I leave a bet you're guaranteed to win, all the points you want every Saturday night, "Take me to Denny's and I'll be your best friend!", a car without payments due, rice cakes, the man with no popo, Gomez, the room adjacent to mine ten years from now in the maternity ward, a nickname, a 6 foot tall well-built Linguini to share an incredible and special life with.

To Melody, I leave "I'm selfish and controlling!", a presentation of the B-B-B-Big M-M-M-Money, Big Oral, the title of muscle control coordinator, a daily supply of bread and water, an eight inch Jolly Joe, "It's been since -", "Ooh, aah, what a feeling, go man go - touchdown! !"

To Howard, I leave "Magina came down from New Jersey. . .", a Big V with a bald beaver, Valentine's dance freshman year and revisited senior year, a picture of you when you were bald, "You're too beautiful for a name like Magina.", withdrawal symptoms from a day without gossip, "When are your parents coming? I need a free meal.", and a night with "I'm an exhibitionist and I'm free" if you show her your vision.

To Susan, I leave Hanna and Savannah, Phyllis' jello jam, "Will you do mine too?", a breastical ornamentation and a nostical oralmentation, Cousin It, "no shoes, no shaving, and no jewlery", a fork, "even Larry", earrings from America, a bra that's awesome for flashing, your own BK chain in Australia.

To Mary D., I leave the numbers 1911, 1912, and my Petunia Margo Rose.

To Mary Z., I leave euthanasia - go, go, go!, the Wuss Patrol Fan Club presidency, a lifetime worth of gossip till dawn.

To Becky, I leave Sade at the Keys, long talks on lazy days, sunshine.

To Harold, I leave free driving lessons, my vision and my appetite, a couple pairs of Calvin Klein underwear, shorts that don't glow in the dark, hours of "do", strawberry, a late night swim, a smile, a wonderful life. . .

To Tina, I leave Oprah as our idol, "Will you give me a hug?", The Never-Ending Diet. . .

To Mark Smith, I leave my appreciation of your perverted humor, good advice, insight, and Kahlua.

To Tom West, I leave 16 counts, Clinical and Counseling pop quizzes, and thanks for my favorite class - Gestalt Psychology.

To Professor MacDougall, I leave a Budweiser belt buckle, Michael Jackson gloves, DD, rights to the word "parsimonious", every source file that caused me weeks of agony.

Margaret Racaniello

To Doris Bazzini, I leave the Stellazzini Alliance, the dock, the fort, and the platform, naked pizza, a lifetime time supply of Farina, Disney World, Space Mountain's favorite passenger - P.W., Late Night with Frank Cannon, 101 Dalmations, a Springsteen concert together, summer vacations, city excursions and boardwalk nights. All my gratitude and appreciation for not only being my love, . . . but also my friend.

To Todd Stewart, I leave a sudden trip to Tampa, an eight-pack of diet Coke, a good laugh about the Bugg, and a Jackson Browne cassette

To Rich Dean, I leave Autumn term afternoon which we slept through, a road trip to Tallahassee, a car fire in the ashtray, first song of the second side of Bruce's seventh album.

To Mark Richardson, I leave free laundry service for a year, a Cobra and a phone to "phone home", Morris Day songs, late night food hunts with hardly any cash, and the book: Ten Easy Ways to Stop Snoring or At Least So Your Rommate Can't Hear, by Dr.Bobby Lowondo.

Brian Stella

Friends, laughter, parties, and places, there is much I wish to remember about Eckerd College

To my dorm, Berkeley House, I leave the room inventories and two unopened rolls of contac paper.

To Steve Matz, I leave my water guns and alarm clock.

To Eric, I must admit that his fish was the biggest.

To my special friend, Carla Corrina Cosio, I leave a year's supply of Saga donuts and jogging at the crack of dawn.

To Mary Zimnick, I leave my phone number.

To Caroline Crosby, I leave my suntan lotion and beach bag.

To my dear friends, Val-Terry and Pollymorph, I leave memories of the beach, Jimmy Buffett, cheeseburgers, Meyers, late night study parties, the three stooges, the Monkees, Chicago, Atlanta, Alma, London, diet Coke, and all my love. We'll always be more than Christmas card friends.

Goodbye Eckerd College!!!

Sara Leah Walker

I, Tracey Merithew, being of sound mind and body (I think) bequeath the following:

To ALL my friends, I leave "thanks" for your friendship and all the fun times.

To Carla Cosio, I leave my car, bunk beds, and Larry's Ice Cream.

To Sue "Q" Kilner, I leave beach sand, The Old World Cheese Shop, and "T. Lou".

To Doris "Bazz", I leave a bottle of rum, black boots, and a certain golfcart.

To Val Cerny, I leave my sense of humor.

To Kim McBride, I leave my "tan".

To Gretchen Fajaro, I leave my Spanish grammar book, and my high tops.

To Paul Braham, I leave a BK chicken sandwich, and Donna's car keys.

To Hap Johnson, I leave all my JCP notes that he missed in class.

To Matt S., I leave my French book (and no, it doesn't have all the answers).

To all the students who I tutored in Spanish, I leave all my notes and lots of luck - Lonnie, Mike, Chris, etc..

Finally, to all my friends, I leave a sad goodbye and a supply of stamps and stationary. Please keep in touch, this is not the end but the beginning.

Tracey Merithew

I, Chris Brinales, being of not totally sound mind and body, leave my stereo and albums to my ex-roomie Donna Totani, not really!! Psych!! I want to say to all my friends thanks for the memories and good times, you know who you are. I hope everyone had as much fun as I did here at the Eckerd College country club for the past four years. This has been one of the best times of my life and I thank you all for it. Now remember to keep in touch always, and who will be the first to go down in marriage?!? Remember me in the freezing cold in Chicago and come visit soon. Good luck to you all!!!! I also want to say thanks to my parents for giving me this opportunity to attend such a wonderful college, I love you both and thank you so much for everything!! I also leave, for all the people who love the seawall, the hooks on the palms trees for your hammock. Enjoy!!

Last but not least:

One slip and down the hole we fall,
It seems to take no time at all,
A momentary lapse of reason, that binds a life for a life,
The one regret, you'll never forget, there'll be no sleep here tonight.

Pink Floyd

May Thursday night KEGS live forever, Oberg!!

Chris Brinales

I, Clare Marie Todd, being of psychologically over-stimulated mind and stimulating body, to all of my friends, whom I hate to leave and who have helped me to make it through Eckerd, I leave you love, happiness, and the wish that you will all chase after your dreams. Through the past four years I have lived through much with different people, to them I leave the following memories. With these memories I hope that we can always maintain that love and happiness that we all shared at Eckerd College.

To Melody, the director and the planner, I leave, "Melba Toast", "So Happy Together", "Jolene", "Big Oral", "Go get me a chocolate icecream, Mel!", flip-flops. I also want to leave you with the wish that you will suceed in all you endeavors - don't ever give up!

To Ellen, Elle - Belle, I leave, instant ice tea and coffee, smelling poop, "You guys", "20 seconds is all that's necessary!", I also leave you with a friendship that you can always count on. Thank you for always inspiring me and for being such a good friend. Oh yea, if we stole all of your dirty laundry, what would you wear?

To Margaret, Marge, Short Shit, etc., I leave, "going to town", "Oooohhhmmm", "Thursday Pub nights", "Who's going to bet me $50 I'll get a 4.0 this semester?", "grilled cheeses, french fries, and pie a la mode", "What can we bet?", "Party Favors", "This is the year of the wuss". Thanks for being the best friends that anyone could ask for. You are the sweetest and a very special person in my life. Thank you for helping me to grow so much in such a short amount of time. Thank you always for your honesty and never stretching the truth.

To Becky, the Beckster, I leave, "It's five 'til five let's go to dinner", "Take the money and run!", Tom Petty's "American Girl". Thanks for all your support and love. You have been a great friend and of course, a great roommate. I'll never forget the trip the the Keys, when we jammed to "American Girl", "Excitable Boy", and got sick of "Take the money and run!". It was great! See you in Altanta!

To Janice, Niece, I leave, Droopy, Pink, Webster's dictionary, a year's supply of hairspray. You are terrific friend and were a great roommate. Thanks for putting up with me! We had such a great time! Remember the Sid Vicious and Halloween parties and how we would all get dressed up together? That was fun! Stay away from strawberry daquiris and visit me a lot in Atlanta!

To Doris, Jeannie, Bazz, Boris, I leave, "bulge of happiness", "I'm sorry", "sympathy", "I feel a lot less congested Tom", "Say it Doris, 'Phyllis is a woman!'". I don't think that the psych lab would have been half as fun without you! I know that my senior year wouldn't have been, you big fat emotional tart, you.

To Greg, I leave, "Are those shorts from the kidney?", "Did you wash them yet?". You're the kind of friend everyone hopes to have--a lot of fun and always caring. Thanks for being such a good friend.

To Susan McGuzin, I leave, "Will ya gimme a hug, will ya gimme a hug?", "70's songs", "Beecher Bee Gees Bash", "She's a brick house!". You're the greatest! Thanks for all the good times! I love you Guzin!

To Jeff, I leave a rolodex. Thanks for being a terrific friend and for being my partying pal!

C FLATT '88

To Kristen, I leave, "You guys", "Days of our lives", "Yea, 'Bachelor Party' was great", Ileave you duties as president of our local wuss partrol chapter--stomp on them! It was so much fun at school with you! (and that's the queerest sentence). I'll miss you next year.

To Paul, I leave, "If they ask you my nickname, lie", "You all are a waste of sperm", " Eel" Thank you for giving me your last name! I love you!

To BT, I leave, "Next time we will get kinky together", "BT is so intelligent."

To the Keys gang, I leave, "Margaret and Greg do the dishes!" Let's do it again soon!

To Jeff Moreno, I leave you with the thanks for being my favorite person to debate with! It was lots of fun.

To Mary Z., thank you for all the fun we had at 4:00 in the morning discussing things when I had tests to study for. It was worth it! Also, it was fun sharing about high school experiences and memories. Thanks for being my friend.

To Andy Haines, Thank you for being such a big influence on my involvement in ECOS and FISA. You really taught me a lot and I appreciate it. I also loved all the fun we had joking around and at FISA conventions.

To Professor MacDougall, thank you for challenging me and for being flexible when we needed it.

To Professor Tom West, I leave you with "Cogitate", 4 hours, PMR, and pop-quizzes. Thank you also for being a great influence on me. I really have learned a lot.

To Professor Jeff Howard, I leave you with those dreaded cartoons and the dog that did "non-student doggings." Thanks for being a great professor. I feel that you and your classes were very influential and helped me in exploration of my future goals.

To Mark Smith, I leave, "Yes, I know, today is Thursday." Thanks for all your help and guidance. It is really appreciated!

To my favorite cousin, Sandi, Thanks for being terrific! It was fun going to college together! If you're passing through Atlanta on your way home - stop over to visit next year!

To Mary and Howard, you guys are the greatest. Thanks for all the fun times!

To Margaret and Ellen, since we started here together from the beginning here are some special memories that could not be left out: "Yup, yup, I see what you mean, yup, yup!", "Is that a quote" (the Quote book), "Pour more back of it in", "I can tell just by the way he sings that he's blind", "I wish the HMO lady would say something?", "Do any of the good people go to class?" I am going to miss you guys very, very much. From here on we will go on our seperate ways but we will always be together in spirit and love. These are the important things.

Love,
Clare Todd (Future Clare Kirchman)

I, Tony Merritt, being of concurrent mind and tall body do hereby leave: my kitten/IBM Interface to Mark Fishman, my semantics to Ed Gallizzi for his realization, and my other "Good Wholly Moses" resting tablet to "The Meach".

Robert "Tòny" Merritt

To future Newtonites, I leave the reigns of the Newton Around the World Party.

To Tluszcz, I leave one article of Kimmie's lingerie.

To Rosenberg, I leave . . . . flexing.

To Malek (Rasta Raja), I leave memories of the Big H at the Harp.

Chris Basley

I, Ellen Shupe, leave the following.

To Margaret, I leave, a perspective student (what's her name?), a soup spoon and a polaroid, a rubber tree in case you get lucky, aperfect night to walk to the sea wall, underwear hanging from the salad bar, a train and a towing service, twice through B.K., and one of the infamous bets.

To Clare, I leave, a bathroom stall in the Holiday Inn lobby, a racoon (should I be scared?), a Kleenex (are you dying?), peppermint patties in a locked treasure chest, and Cremora at 4:00 am in Rich's room.

To Howard, I leave, a polyester John in downtown St. Pete, a get-well present straight from St. Anthony's dumpster, and a cheese and wine party with Dr. Schooley.

To Paul, Greg & Margaret, I leave a midget in a trenchcoat - " not all of me is small."

To Melody (the delightful treat) and Clare, I leave a team pumping and free footballs from 7 - 11.

To Howard and Scott, I leave a 1985 U2 concert and a lady with electrodes on her chest.

To Gina T., I leave, a free weekend in my bed with the "mammoth."

To John, I leave, a Smith-Corona so you can improve your "typing" skills, the big C, a telephone, and writing privelages for a book entitled Everyday Excuses for the Layperson.

To the Queen, I leave, a long muscles new wardrobe and do, and the ability to recognize a good exam.

To Kristen, I leave, rice cakes and a night of two of my favorites: "Dirty Dancing" and Journey.

To Tim, Clare, Howard, and Mary, I leave, a stray shopping cart in the Berkeley Square parking lot.

To Zeus, I leave, "Strobe Light," Rufus, and a pastic funnel in your gas tank.

To Joni, I leave, a treasure hunt that takes you to a killer dog car lot in Clearwater, a hat-chasing expedition, and a couple of thorough searches through my room. (incidentally, do you need a haircut?)

Ellen Shupe

I, David Trieloff, leave the following.

To Mongo, I leave, the two things he wants most: Meow Mix and his own missile.

To Al, I leave, Minoxidil and a jar of Vaseline for the two things he needs most.

To Shag, I leave, a customized golf cart for the Physical Plant.

Stephanie gets what she wrote a check for.

To Lexi, I leave, my one sweater.

To Skip, I leave, my films (including "Snuff," "Animal," and "Lolita").

Finally to Liz, I leave, my you-know-what, under lock and key.

David Trieloff

I, Sylvia Anna Golden, being of confused mind and overworked body leave the following messages.

To Bhat-wana, I leave, Sunwatsen, and whatever other names come to mind, the round bed, Kase and the baby boom, and most importantly, everything sexual.

To Git (mit eine Brust), I leave, my thanks for the best times, the drunken German conversations, Sybolic Logic, and the survey of my scrappy body.

To Terrence, I leave, these following thoughts: Chinese dinner, Godiva chocolates, Spring Balls, and Duckie. "You're Heaven on Earth . . . and that's an understatement. I love you!"

To Louigi, I leave, Tet ti Zeet!

To Mom and Dad, I leave, TMJ, all my love and thanks, and a monsterous medical and school bill.

Dear Karen,
Congratulations ! ! !
You have reached the half way point of your career. We are so proud of you. We love you very much. Remember we are always a phone call away.

Love,

Mom, Dad, & Donald

p.s. Dad wants to know if he can borrow a $20.

Loving and sincere wishes for your future. May the Rainbow of Good Luck, much happiness and great success follow you throughout your life. We are very proud of you, and love you very much. Toni, you are a dream come true.
Go for it ! ! !

Love, Mom & Willy

Best Wishes to the

Especially to Steven Carbone from the "Carbone" family and all his supporters !
From Andonu, Mai

To our son who has realized his parent's hopes and made them very proud. We wish him enduring love, hard work and good health.

David Trieloff
The B-day boy

Our wish is that Clare and Paul will have a long and happy life together,

Jane & Dick Van Tassell

To Sylvia,
You're my favorite (and only) sister (even though you really are adopted, you know). Good luck at law school. I know you can do it!
Deine Leibe Schwester,
Bhat-wanna

Dear Clare,
You made it! Finally, huh? Congrats. Thanks for all the friendship and support you have given me. Without you it would not have been the same. You've opened up and shared your life and your love. I wish you and Paul all the happiness in the world. Good luck and God bless.
Love,
Sandi

Dear Chris,
Do you know what a pain you have been? Barely worth the trouble, let me tell you! But I really needed help, and you are a real sucker for needy people (like myself). Good luck with your life. I will definitely miss you. Congratulations!
Sonya

Susie,
We are proud of you.
CONGRATULATIONS ! !
Mom & Dad

Dawn,
Congratulations! We miss you. You were a cool RA; we could doanything we wanted, and you were always there to help. Say "hi" to Rick.
Sandi, Sonya, & Stace

To all my bestest friends in the world, can you believe we are finally graduating?!? It's been a long four years, but we made it through with the help of each other. It's been a blast, and let's not do it again. I love you all and thanks for everything! I'll miss you all dear and much and come visit me soon in the Windy City.
Love,
Chris Brinales
p.s. Thanks Mom & Hendricks

To Margaret,
Don't present your body parts too much while at law school. Watch out for Jane's lists! Good luck in the future.
Sandi (Clare's cool Cuz)

Donna,
We wish you all the best that life can bring in your future, work, and personal life.
Love,
Mom, Dad, & Linda

Sly Dog,
Esst meine Scheize! Thanks for teaching me this little German phrase; it's come in handy. I wish you and Terry the following: lots of $, lots of love, lots of success (and even more $). If I know you, you'll have it all (in excess).
I love ya,
Bernhardt

To anyone who has been carting Chris Brinales' sorry ass all over Florida the past four years: Thank - you ! ! !

To Loni, Kathy, Elise, Karen, Steph, and Bradlea:
You are my closest friends in the world. And don't forget, no matter where we are, we will get together for our weddings. HAH ! ! !
Love you all,
Chris B.

To the class of '88,
CONGRATULATIONS ! !
from the yearbook staff

To TV,
Congratulations and good luck in the future. Thanks for everyting; you taught me a lot about life and myself. I hope to see you again.

Gina,
We pray God's blessings are upon you as you as you continue your education. You have used God's gifts to you wisely. Your quest for knowledge will be well rewarded. You continue to make us very proud.
Love Mom, Dad, & Gregg

Dear Chris,
Our wish is for your health, happiness and peace where ever you go and always remember you are in our hearts forever.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Wishing you every happiness and good luck for the future.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Louise, Lori, Chuck, Cathy and Courtney, Randy, Billy

A graduation wish and congratulations to the Greatest Daughter on Earth:
Our only Wish is that you have stretched your mind half as much as you have stretched our pockets.

With much admiration,
Your Loving Parents

Whatever you do, we wish you luck. Where ever you go, we wish you joy. And whatever happens, we wish you success. No one deserves it more than you.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Brian,
I wish that someday you'll have a child who will bring to your life even half the joy and pride that you have brought to mine.

Love,
Mom

Dear Diana,
Congratulations - and all the best Today, Tomorrow and Forever !

Love Always,
Mom, Dad,
"Sis" and Higgins

To Laura,
Stay the "load and lovin' it" person I know.
Who will harass Prof. Bot with me now?
Good Luck,
Sandi

Congratulations Chris:
We are all so proud of you and your achievements. May your future be bright, full of happiness and may all your dreams come true !

Much love,
Dad, Mom & Jim

We wish for you a Future filled with laughter, love, good health, and every success.

Love,
Mom and Dad

You were born great in '68. By '78 you'd proved first rate. Now it's '88 and you graduate. For '98 we all can't wait !
Look out world here comes Shana Banana ! ! !
Much love,
Mom, Dad, and Chelsea

To Sandy, we tip our hat, in Eckerd classes he did sat. He's earned his degree, he's proud as can be, and what do you think of that?
Congratulations !
Dad, Mom, Marc & Sue

Keep looking up !

You have really accomplished what you set out to do — graduate in four years.
You are a super person and a great son.
Love,
Mom + Dad

Dear Sylvia,
Congratulations and Best Wishes!
Good Luck in the years ahead.
Love,
Gram Golden and the Family
